> [For the Dispatch.] East Hanover Presbytery. HOLMES'S CHURCH, NORTHAMPTON COUNTY, VA.,

April 30, 1879. At Petersburg the members of the Presbytery on their way to the Eastern Shore were greeted by the ladies, who had provided for them a bountiful repast. Members of the Norfolk churches met them ou the arrival of the train in their city, and entertained them for the night at the Atlantic Hotel, it being too late to take them to private houses. The trip across the bay to Cherrystone this morning was most delightfui; a bright day, a pleasant temperature, 2 smooth sea, a commodious and handsome steamer, all conspired to add to the pleasure which the brethren always find in these twenty members on board the Hampton. about three miles from the landing, gave au agrecable variety to the journey. FIRST DAY.

Rev. George D. Armstrong, D. D., Moderator, preached the opening sermon to a full There were present fourteen ministers and thirteen ruling elders, as follows: Ministers-J. D. Dudley, G. D. Armstrong, D. D., Charles H. Read, D. D., W. A. Campbell, T. D. Witherspoon, D. D., H. Dupuy, W. F. Bishop, R. D. Stimson, and S. K. Wine.

occupied a good deal of the time and attention of the Presbytery, were generally encouraging and hopeful.

Mr. T. P. Epes, a candidate for the ministry, who has completed his course of study at the Theological Seminary, was examined by committees of the Presbytery on several subjects; and in the afternoon of to-day preached a trial sermon before the Presbytery and congregation. These were sustained as satisfactory paris of trial. His examination will be continued to morrow.

The Rev. S. K. Winn stated his acceptance of the call to the Second church, Petersburg. Whereupon it was ordered that pated in by Messrs. See, Grattan, Fleming, be be installed pastor of that courch on the 18th instant; that the Rev. Dr. Preston preside and preach the sermon on the occasion, the Rev. J. M. Rose deliver the charge to the pastor, and the Rev. Dr. Witherspoon the charge to the people.

The next stated meeting of the Presbytery was appointed to be held in Union church, Brunswick county, on Wednesday before the first Sabbath in October at 11 A. M.

The following commissioners to the General Assembly were elected: Ministers-Rev. Churles H. Read, D. D., and Rev. James P. Smith, with Rev. W. A. Campbell and Rev. N. M. Woods as their alternates; Elders-R. R. Howison, Esq., and Dr. G. W. Pollard, with H. V. Niemeyer and Thomas Flournoy as their alternates.

On the question of a division of the Synod, referred by that body to the Presby teries, the vote stood 13 for division and 13 against division. On the question of lines of division, should the Synod determine to divide, the Presbytery, by a unanimous vote, expressed its preference for a division into two partsthe one Synod to consist of the Presbyteries of East Hanover, West Hanover, Roanoke, Montgomery, and Abingdon; and presented the resolutions of the congregathe other of the Presbyteries of Chesapeake, Maryland, Winchester, Lexington, Green-

Thus has ended a most delightful meet ing, and the largest this body has ever had.

The examination of A carriage-ride to the church, situated Mr. Smith on Hebrew was sustained as a satisfactory part of trial. Mr. Smith's lecture was read, and all his trials being sustained, he was licensed in due form as a probationer for the gospel ministry. It is due to Mr. Smith to say that rarely have a series of trials shown more thorough training and better qualifications for undertaking the great work of preaching the gospel. Rev. W. T. [Reported for the Dispatch.] Presbytery of Montgomery. THIRD DAY. AMSTERDAM, BOTETOURT COUNTY, VA.

May 2, 1879. Pre-bytery was engaged principally in hearing reports from the churches. They were generally encouraging-in some cases specially so.

Rev. W. W. Houston tendered his resignation of his pastoral charge at Salem. The church appeared by its commissioners, who tion unanimously opposing the resignation. Presbytery, for reasons stated by the pastor and at his request, dissolved the pastoral relation, the dissolution to take effect on the 1st of July. The following committee were chosen to the General Assembly: Ministers, D. Blain and W. W. Houston; alternates, R. McIlwain and John Ruff. Elders, W. T. Poague and R. B. Moorman; alternates,

THE EASTERN SHORE .- Separated in manner from the rest of the world, yet in such juxtaposition as to render it within north and east by Delaware Bay, on the south and east by the Atlantic, and on the west by Chesopeake Bay, containing the greater part of the State of Delaware, nine countles-about one third-of Maryland, and two counties of Virginia, lies balmily luxuriating in peace and plenty. The mysterious flood of the Gulf Stream flows close enough to this beautiful shore to saften the humid climate to a mean temperature of 54° to 58° throughout the year, 74° to 77° in summer, 34° to 38° in winter. Figs and pomegranates flourish in the open air with peaches, luscious as nowhere else in the world, apples, pears, melons, berries, and, in short, all varieties of fruit growing in temperate and semi-tropical regions. Wheat, oats, corn, and other cereals grow abundantly, vegetables yield a rich crop, and forest trees of valuable timber-pine, cedar, cypress, and black and white oakabound. Not only does the lightest labor secure a speedy and abundant return from this generous soil, but Nature, as though it were her chosen spot, has stocked it with a lavish supply of her special bounties. The waters teem with oysters, fish, terrapin, and crabs, the long stretches of marshy shore with fowl, and the iuland fields, morasses, and swamps with partridges, gray snipe, and woodcock. With such a land so near us, the busy hum of the world's teeming life beating against its shores like its own Atlantic surges, while it lies quiet and tranquil, with its Italian climate and the fruitfulness of Normandy, supplying as it does a large part of the berries, one third of the oysters, and nearly all the peaches to the New York markets, i is remarkable that so little is really known of it .- Howard Pyle, in Harpers' Maga zine for May.
